

Candidate Privacy Notice and Online Test Agreement

For candidates submitting a CV and completing an online assessment

Controller	Coeus Europe Ltd	Company no. 06633470
Version	1.0	Effective 5 October 2026

Read this before you continue

This notice explains how Coeus Europe Ltd collects and uses your CV, contact details, online test information and test results for recruitment and work-finding services. It also sets out the assessment rules you agree to follow. Your personal data and CV do not become the property of Coeus Europe. They remain personal data about you and are used only as described in this notice and as permitted or required by law.

Important. A test score is one part of the assessment. Unless you are expressly told otherwise, Coeus Europe will not make a final recruitment decision that produces legal or similarly significant effects solely by automated means. You may request human review and provide relevant context about your result.

1 Who is responsible for your data

Coeus Europe Ltd is the data controller for the processing described in this notice.

- Registered office: 2nd Floor, 32–33 Watling Street, Canterbury, Kent CT1 2AN, United Kingdom
- Company number: 06633470
- Privacy and rights contact: info@coeus-europe.com

Where a named hiring client receives your identifiable information, that client will normally act as a separate controller for its own recruitment activities and must provide its own privacy information.

2 Information we collect

- Identity and contact information, including your name, email address, telephone number, location and work eligibility information.
- Your CV, work history, education, qualifications, certificates, professional registrations, language skills and other information you choose to provide.
- Assessment information, including your answers, scores, completion status, time spent, assessor comments, integrity indicators and any explanations you provide.
- Technical information needed to operate and secure the assessment, such as IP address, device and browser information, login and session data, timestamps and security events.
- Information from referees, recruiters, professional registers or other sources where this is relevant, lawful and explained to you.
- Only where clearly stated for the relevant assessment: webcam, microphone, screen or browser activity data used for remote proctoring or identity and test-integrity checks.

Please do not provide health information, criminal-record information or other sensitive information unless Coeus Europe has specifically requested it for a lawful and necessary reason. If sensitive information is required, Coeus Europe will identify an additional legal condition and provide any further notice required.

3 Why we use the information and our legal bases

Purpose	Data used	Primary legal basis
Administer the test, communicate with you and assess role suitability	CV, contact and assessment data	Legitimate interests in providing fair and effective recruitment and work-finding services
Verify identity, qualifications and assessment integrity	Verification records and proportionate technical or proctoring data	Legitimate interests; legal obligation where employment-agency or other rules require checks
Present you for a specific opportunity	Relevant CV information and results	Legitimate interests and work-finding services; your specific authorisation before identifiable disclosure to the stated client
Keep compliance records and handle disputes or legal claims	Relevant recruitment records and consent evidence	Legal obligation and legitimate interests in establishing, exercising or defending legal claims
Consider you for future suitable roles	CV, contact and assessment profile	Only under the separately stated future-opportunity option and for the stated retention period

4 Sharing your information

Coeus Europe may share only the information that is relevant and necessary with:

- the specific hiring client or project organisation identified to you for the opportunity;
- authorised Coeus Europe personnel and affiliated entities supporting the same recruitment process;
- assessment, hosting, communication, IT-security and professional-service providers acting under appropriate contractual and confidentiality obligations; and
- regulators, courts, law-enforcement bodies or professional bodies where disclosure is legally required or necessary to protect legal rights.

5 International transfers and security

Your information may be processed in the United Kingdom, the European Economic Area and, where service providers or clients are located elsewhere, in another country. Coeus Europe will use an applicable adequacy decision or approved contractual and supplementary safeguards where required. Access is restricted to persons who need the information, and proportionate technical and organisational measures are used to protect it. No internet-based system can be guaranteed completely secure.

6 Retention

Active recruitment file. Coeus Europe will normally retain recruitment and work-finding records for 5 years after the last recruitment or work-finding service provided to you, or longer where a specific legal obligation or live dispute requires this. Information not used for any recruitment action should be deleted promptly.

7 Your rights

Depending on the applicable law and circumstances, you may ask Coeus Europe for access to your personal data, correction, deletion, restriction, portability, or information about recipients. You may object to processing based on legitimate interests and may withdraw consent or a specific authorisation at any time. Withdrawal does not affect processing already carried out lawfully. Some rights are subject to legal exceptions and retention duties.

To exercise a right, challenge a result or request human review, email info@coeus-europe.com. Coeus Europe may need proportionate information to verify your identity. You may also complain to the UK Information Commissioner's Office or, if EU GDPR applies, to the supervisory authority in your country of residence or work.

8 Online assessment rules

By proceeding, you agree that you will:

- complete the assessment yourself and provide accurate information;
- not obtain unauthorised assistance from another person, generative AI, websites, notes or other tools, except where the assessment instructions expressly permit them;
- not copy, photograph, record, reproduce, publish, sell or share test questions, answers, scoring logic or other confidential assessment material;
- follow the stated time limits, identity checks, security requirements and technical instructions;
- tell Coeus Europe promptly about a disability, accessibility need or technical problem so that a reasonable alternative or adjustment can be considered; and
- understand that suspected misconduct or a material breach may lead to review, invalidation of the result or withdrawal from the process, but you will be given a reasonable opportunity to explain relevant circumstances before a final adverse decision.

Intellectual property. The assessment questions, content, design, scoring methods and related materials remain the intellectual property of Coeus Europe or its licensors. This does not transfer ownership of your CV, your personal data or your original work to Coeus Europe.
